TEST ADMINISTRATION INSTRUCTIONS

PURPOSE

Utah's Pre-kindergarten Entry and Exit Profile (PEEP) is intended to inform various stakeholders, such as parents, teachers, and leadership, on the academic and lifelong learning practices essential for entering and exiting pre-kindergarten students. The information gained from the profile will be used to:

- Provide insights into current levels of performance upon entry and exit of pre-kindergarten.
- Identify students who may need early intervention instruction and promote differentiated instruction for all students.
- Analyze the effectiveness of programs.
- Provide opportunities for data-informed decision-making and cost-benefit analysis of early learning initiatives.
- Identify effective instructional practices or strategies for improving student achievement outcomes in a targeted manner.
- Understand the influence and impact of pre-kindergarten in both the short- and long-term.

STRUCTURE AND SETTING

Utah's Pre-kindergarten Entry and Exit Profile is designed to be administered in individual testing sessions (an assessor with a single student). A trained assessor is expected to administer the profile.

TESTING WINDOW

The testing window for the exit component will begin the last four weeks of school for the district or private provider.

TESTING TIME

The profile is comprised of 14 questions with 7 observational items. The profile is untimed, but is expected to take less than 20 minutes to administer.

PREPARATION

Assessment administrators should assure that the following steps are completed prior to testing sessions.

1. Read and understand all the information in this PEEP Test Administration Manual.
2. Work with school administrators and parents of students to establish a testing schedule.
3. Obtain and setup the needed testing materials including the following:
  - 1 copy of this Test Administration Manual

- 1 copy of the Student Materials Booklet
- 1 copy of the Scoring Sheet per student (paper or online via the Data Gateway)
- Pencil and blank sheet of paper for student use
- Set of 7 basic counting manipulatives (whatever type is typically used in class)
- 1 blank sheet of paper for teacher use

ACCOMMODATIONS

Allowable accommodations for students with disabilities or students with a 504 plan have been outlined in anticipation of common student needs (see Appendix A). Examples of accommodations include the use of assistive technology, setting/scheduling modifications, or any other accommodation that will allow the teacher to more accurately measure a student's current level of academic skills and lifelong learning practices.

ALTERNATE ASSESSMENT

For students with a significant cognitive disability, the student's IEP team should consider whether the student can successfully access the PEEP. If the IEP team decides the student cannot successfully access the PEEP, Utah's alternate PEEP assessment should be used. The alternate assessment materials can be found at <https://schools.utah.gov/assessment/assessments>. Click the Pre-Kindergarten tab.

DETAILED INSTRUCTIONS

This section outlines the test administration procedures for each question. Question information includes standard alignment, instructions, scoring, materials, and a sample record of response. Text in BOLD represents the profile script and should be read to students exactly as printed. Text in ITALICS represents actions the teacher should take.

As needed, teachers may offer encouragement, but in doing so, they should not provide any support or information that would cause a student to modify a response.

ENTERING STUDENT RESPONSES

When testing is completed or administration is ready to begin, student responses for the literacy, numeracy, and lifelong learning portions should be entered into the Data Gateway at datagateway.schools.utah.gov.

DATA COLLECTION DUE DATES

All student data collected should be entered by June 15th for the exit profile.

APPENDICES

APPENDIX A: ACCOMMODATIONS

Accommodations for the Pre-kindergarten Entry and Exit Profile
These are the allowable accommodations for students with disabilities.
ACCESSIBILITY FEATURE/RESOURCE		DESCRIPTION
Alternate location	✓	In some circumstances, distractions for an individual student or for a group of students can be reduced by altering the location in which an individual student interacts with instructional materials or test content. For students who are easily distracted by the presence of other students, an alternate location allows students to work individually or in small groups. Changes may also be made to a student's location within a room, such as away from windows, doors, or pencil sharpeners. Sitting near the teacher's desk or in the front of a classroom may be helpful for some students. Physically enclosed classrooms (classrooms with four walls) may be more appropriate than open classrooms, and study carrels might also be helpful. Some students may benefit from being in an environment that allows for movement, such as being able to walk around. A student assessed in an alternate location needs a proctor supervising the assessment at all times.
Assistive communication devices	✓	For students who have difficulty manipulating a mouse or standard keyboard, there are a variety of assistive communication devices that allow them to control a computer program and record responses. These assistive communication devices include items such as Intellikeys, sip-and-puff devices, single-switch devices, eye tracking devices, and touch screens.
Audio amplification	✓	Some students may require audio amplification devices in addition to hearing aids to increase clarity. A teacher may use an amplification system when working with students in classroom situations that contain a great deal of ambient noise.
Braille (tactile graphics for students who are blind)	✓	Braille is a method of reading a raised-dot code with the fingertips. Not all students who are blind or visually impaired read braille fluently or choose braille as their primary mode of reading. Even if they use braille as their primary mode of reading, students should also build skills in using electronic formats, such as audio recordings and synthesized speech.

Accommodations for the Pre-kindergarten Entry and Exit Profile

These are the allowable accommodations for students with disabilities.

Breaks	✓	Breaks may be given if needed. The administrator of the assessment must monitor the length and timing of breaks so that students do not have opportunity to seek answers to items on the assessment.
Change order of activities	✓	Assessments and activities that require focused attention should be scheduled for the time of day when a student is most likely to demonstrate peak performance. To reduce fatigue and increase attention, activities or some tests can be administered over multiple days (for example, completing a portion each day).
Color adjustments	N/A
Descriptive audio	N/A
Directions—oral translation	✓	Oral translation of directions involves immediate rendering of directions into a student’s native language. Clarification of directions is not allowed on any assessment.  (“Directions” refers only to non-item content that appears at the beginning of the test or between testing sessions. It does not refer to the item’s stem, directions for answering a specific question, etc.)
Directions—reread	✓	To accurately understand the task a student is being asked to engage in, some students need to have directions reread. Clarification of directions is not allowed on any assessment.  (“Directions” refers only to non-item content that appears at the beginning of the test or between testing sessions. It does not refer to the item’s stem, directions for answering a specific question, etc.)
Directions—signed	✓	Directions may be signed by a certified interpreter. Clarification of directions is not allowed for any student.  (“Directions” refers only to non-item content that appears at the beginning of the test or between testing sessions. It does not refer to the item’s stem, directions for answering a specific question, etc.)
Environment change	✓	Environmental changes may be necessary for some students. Some students benefit from the use of adaptive or special furniture, such as devices for sitting upright during instruction or assessment. Use of a slant board or wedge to minimize eye strain and provide a better work surface may be needed by some students. Special lighting may also be beneficial to some students.

Highlight	✓	Allowed highlighting, providing visual cues, and using markers, arrows, and stickers, may draw attention to key words or content in instruction. These resources may or may not be applicable or available for assessments.
Human reader	N/A
Large print paper	✓	Need to request through the Utah State Board of Education. Students with visual impairments or other print disabilities may need assistance viewing content. Access for students with visual needs is typically provided through enlarging content. Large print paper assessments may no longer be needed in computer-based testing if magnification of the entire screen and/or magnification of select areas is available. Larger monitors may also aid students in computer-based assessments. Large-print editions of instructional materials are required for some students with visual impairments or print disabilities. All text and graphic materials, including labels and captions on pictures, diagrams, maps, charts, exponential numbers, notes, and footnotes, must be presented in at least 18-point type for students who need large print.
Magnification	✓	Access for students with visual impairments is typically provided through magnifying content.
Minimize distractions	✓	Some students need help reducing distractions and/or maintaining focus while they are accessing and interacting with information presented during instruction or assessment. A student may wear noise buffers, such as earphones, earplugs, or headphones, to reduce distractions and improve concentration. Study carrels may also be used.
Blank scratch paper and graph paper	N/A
