

The Snapshot Contest

One Monday morning at breakfast, Mr. West looked up	9 from his newspaper. "Listen to this," he said. "The Village	19
Post is going to hold another snapshot contest. Take a look at	31
the first prize." He handed the front page to Jim.	41
"Hey!" shouted the boy. "It's a camera outfit just like	51
the newsmen have. I'll bet it costs a lot of money. Would I	64
ever like to win that!"	69
"Fat chance!" said Paul. "Every camera bug in town will	79
send in a picture."	83
Jim was too busy reading about the contest to listen. The	94
snapshots had to show something of interest to the reader of	105 the Village Post . Every picture had to be taken that week and	117 sent to the newspaper office by Friday Night. The newsmen	127 would choose the winning snapshot, and it would appear on	137
the front page of the Saturday's paper.	144
