

Kay Keeps A Secret

In the evening after supper, Kay's dad read a newspaper story out loud. It told about a man named Jack Green, who had driven to a factory early that morning. He hadn't been able to load his truck, because the factory wasn't open yet. To keep warm, he had left the motor running. The police found Mr. Green and broke into his truck just in time to save his life.	10 22 33 45 56 70
