Mindfulness Moment

- What did you do over Spring Break?
- Share with the group in the Zoom Chat.

(Not familiar with Zoom Chat? It is one of the menu options at the bottom of your Zoom screen.)

Nate has worked for Prevent Child Abuse Utah for nearly 4 years as both an Education Specialist and Parents as Teachers Supervisor. He graduated from Weber State University with a degree in Social Work and has been actively involved in the field for over a decade. He cares deeply about the community of which he is a part and appreciates the various opportunities he's had to support families and children. He's also very interested in art and philosophy and how they can help his clients find meaning and joy in everyday life.

Michelle Knight

Michelle.knight@schools.Utah.gov

Michelle is the project AWARE Grant Manager at USBE focusing on suicide prevention and mental health resources for K-12 schools. Previously, she worked as a project facilitator for the University Neuropsychiatric Institute at the University of Utah Hospitals and Clinics overseeing the development and implementation of the SafeUT app. While working on her MHA/MBA at Weber State, Michelle coordinated the merger of mental health resources and development of the Utah Statewide CrisisLine and a 3-digit text line. She graduated from Weber State with a Master of Health Admin. and a Master of Business Admin. in 2019.

Cathy Davis

Cathy.davis@schools.Utah.gov

Cathy taught ecology, biology, and health sciences for over eighteen years; for seven of those years Cathy taught school success to at-risk students. She is a small business owner and a graduate of the Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Businesses Program. Cathy has training in eating disorders, grief counseling, trauma-informed care, and is certified with the American Association for Suicidology as a school suicide prevention specialist. She is the current Suicide Prevention Specialist at the Utah State Board of Education.
