Utah State Board of Education Leadership Statement on Educational Equity Rule

SALT LAKE CITY – In today’s meeting the Utah State Board of Education voted to make administrative rule R277-328 Educational Equity in Schools effective starting August 9.

The Board appreciates the incredible amount of diverse feedback it received. The Board was very excited to have an unprecedented amount of interest and engagement resulting in over 300 pages of public comment. The Board thanks all who provided public comment over the last several months of an engaged public process.

The Board plans to continue to engage with all stakeholders as this administrative rule moves forward to the implementation stage.

The Board looks forward to future engagements and opportunities to work with all the great stakeholders and advocates for Utah students.
