Legal Notice:

Nonprofit Organizations Registration for Summer Food Service Program

SALT LAKE CITY – The Summer Food Service Program (SFSP) is designed to provide nutritionally balanced, high-quality meals to children during summer vacations, interim and off-track time periods. The SFSP provides meals at approved sites to children 18 years of age and younger. A sponsor may operate many different types of sites including an open site, enrolled site, residential summer camp, or a nonresidential summer camp.

In order to become an SFSP sponsor, an organization must:

- Be a (1) public or nonprofit school authority; (2) public or nonprofit private residential summer camp; (3) unit of local, municipal, or county government, or (4) private nonprofit organization;
- Demonstrate financial and administrative capability;
- Have adequate personnel for monitoring and managing sites to comply with civil rights requirements;

- Attend training by the state administering agency and provide training of all SFSP personnel;
- Enter into a written agreement with the Utah State Board of Education Child Nutrition Programs.
