

A Wish from the Fish

One morning the fisherman's wife said, "This	7 house is really too small. I think the fish could give us	19 a larger house. I would like to live in a castle. Go to	32
your fish and ask him for a castle."	40
"Oh, my dear wife!" said the husband. "This	48
house is big enough. Why would we want to live in a	60
castle?"	61
"Go along," said the wife. "The fish might just as	71
well give it to us. Do as I say!"	80
The man did not want to go, and he said to	91 himself, "It's not the right thing to do." But he went	102
anyway.	103
