

TITLE I PART A - THE TOOL FOR EQUITY

THE TITLE I PROGRAM WORKS TO ENSURE LEARNING TAKES PLACE FOR ALL CHILDREN.

Title I, Part A is designed to “Provide all children significant opportunity to receive a fair, equitable, and high-quality education.”

This effort is accomplished by the development of:

- customized instruction and curricula programs
- services which help students meet high academic standards
- support systems focused on engaging student interest in what they can learn and do

Below are just a few of the many high-quality sessions focused on Title I Part A:

- An Extreme Makeover: One School’s Journey to Effective Reading Instruction
- Equity and Access Through Powerful Data Systems
- Navigating the Jungle of Observation and Feedback: Putting Bare Necessities Into Action

ESEA CONFERENCE SESSIONS WILL OFFER INSTRUCTIONAL PRACTICES AND RESOURCES UTILIZED BY SUCCESSFUL TITLE I SCHOOLS FROM ACROSS THE COUNTRY.

NATIONAL ESEA CONFERENCE

FEBRUARY 4-7, 2020 | ATLANTA, GA

Hosted by National Association of ESEA State Program Administrators

A CHANCE TO LEARN FROM THE BEST

The 2020 National ESEA Conference is the largest conference focused on federal education programs and the most valuable professional development opportunity of the year, offering insights from the brightest minds in education.

BENEFITS OF SENDING A TEAM TO ATTEND

We urge schools and districts to send small teams to soak up as much knowledge as possible with the intent of training and educating their colleagues upon returning home from Atlanta.

Schools and districts that send staff to the 2020 National ESEA Conference are able to learn from the experiences and efforts of educators all across the country and use that information to boost student success. Specific benefits include:

- Developing a professional learning team.
- Strengthening systems designed to foster high-quality professional development between school and district leaders.
- Equipping district and school leadership teams to enhance teacher development practices.
- Preparing school leaders to develop strong teacher recruitment, preparation, evaluation, and ongoing support systems.
- Exposing your instructional teams to successful school improvement tools used by similar schools across the county.
- Discovering instructional program strengths through workgroups that include school leaders who work on accountability systems, student assessment systems, parental and community engagement, early childhood, and students with disabilities programs.

HOW TO MAKE THE MOST OUT OF THE 2020 NATIONAL ESEA CONFERENCE

In order to most effectively make use of your time and bring as much information back to your school or district as possible, we recommend that you:

- Review the schedule to identify sessions of interest and relevance to you and your colleagues, and come to the Conference with a plan.
- Split your team up in Atlanta to cover more ground and attend all the sessions you've identified as relevant.
- Consider purchasing a Video OnDemand subscription with your registration so you can utilize streaming videos from the Conference during your training sessions back home.
- The 2020 National ESEA Conference is fast approaching, and will feature over 100 content-rich sessions. Explore the session schedule, filter by topic area or relevant ESEA program, and add sessions to your own personalized schedule to get the most out of your time at the Conference.

The abundance of important information, not to mention the time spent conversing with like-minded educators, could be a big help to your school or district.
