

America250 Utah Essay & Art Contest

Celebrating 250 Years of Independence

Utah State Board of Education

Utah is joining the national celebration of America's 250th anniversary, and we want to hear from you!

Students across Utah are invited to share what America means to them today by exploring the ideas in the Declaration of Independence and the U.S. Constitution.

Who Can Participate

- Utah students in grades 5, 8, and 9–12 are eligible to enter. All work must be original.
- Your essay or visual artwork should respond to the national contest question:
- "What does America mean to you?"
- Use ideas from the Declaration of Independence and/or the U.S. Constitution to support your response.

Students under the age of 18 must have parent or legal guardian permission to participate.
