Education Languages Services Report

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

During the 2023-2024 school year in 18 of the 42 school districts there are between 20 and 50 different languages spoken by students and their families. The data for each Local Education Agency (LEA) is located on the Utah State Board of Education Title III website, under Legislation. This language diversity is not the norm in Utah's 140 Public Charter Schools where typically Spanish is the other language that is dominant. Charter school's enrollment is 12% of the total 672,662 students or approximately 78,000 students. Charter schools added 946 students, a 1.2 increase from 2022-2023. The most recent data show that the enrollment of Students Learning English and being monitored is 75,401 in 2022; 81,290 in 2023 which is an increase of 5,889 students

There are available contracts from the Utah's Office of State Purchasing for the following services: three contracts for American Sign Language; three contracts for on-demand remote interpretation; and five contracts for in-person interpretation services. These contracts provide the estimated and actual costs for interpretation and translation services. The report will: 1) identify the availability of alternative procurement mechanisms that are independent of the division; and 2) include a description of the existing use of all state purchasing contracts.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

During the 2022-2023 school year in 18 of the 41 school districts there are between 20 and 50 different languages spoken by students and their families. The data for each Local Education Agency (LEA) is located on the Utah State Board of Education Title III website, under Legislation. This language diversity is not the norm in Utah's 142 Public Charter Schools where typically Spanish is the other language that is dominant. Charter schools' enrollment is 12% of the total 675,000 students enrolled in Utah schools or approximately 78,000 students. There was a 1.2 increase in charter schools this year. There are available contracts from the Utah's Office of State Purchasing for the following services: three contracts for American Sign Language; and five contracts for in-person interpretation services. These contracts provide the actual costs for interpretation and translation services. The report will: 1) provide a Model Policy sent to all Local Education Agencies; 2) include a description of the existing use and efficacy of all state purchasing contracts, 3) outline the availability of alternative procurement mechanisms that are independent of the division with an example for that process.

INTRODUCTION

The Utah legislature recognizes the importance of parental participation in the educational process for students to achieve and maintain high levels of performance. HB302 focuses on the availability of language services to meet the needs of LEAs. Utah has a history of welcoming refugee families and as a result there are over 120 family heritage languages spoken, including languages in the eight Tribal Nations. Utah's Dual Language program and the Bi-literacy Seal awarded to 1678 students in 2023 -an increase of 53% - have contributed to valuing multilingualism for students from English speaking families. The required policy for every LEA ensures that parents can be involved in their children's education and informed of the all educational opportunities available to their student

USE AND EFFECTIVENESS OF AVAILABLE STATE LANGUAGE SERVICES

The language services provided in contracts are an important aspect of how LEAs contact vendors to meet their needs. It is essential that contracts provide a range of services that include 1) interpretation and translation services for meeting every language in Utah; 2) oral interpretation services for those languages that are oral, like Utah's Tribal Languages and 3) Over Phone Interpretation (OPI) and Video Remote Interpretation (VRI).

The Utah Division of State Purchasing cannot comment to the effectiveness as the contracts are put into place for all Eligible Users to be able to use. The usage reports submitted by the contractors to the Division of Purchasing do reflect usage from various entities throughout the state that provide support when an Eligible User has a need. These contracts are available to be called upon when the need arises. A support document, provided by State Purchasing, contains the details of the usage with breakdown by LEAs and is available on the Title III USBE website under Legislation.

Definition of Eligible User:

As defined in the State's cooperative contract terms and conditions, "Eligible User(s)" means those authorized to use State Cooperative Contracts and includes the State of Utah's government departments, institutions, agencies, political subdivisions (e.g., colleges, school districts, counties, cities, etc.), and, as applicable, nonprofit organizations, agencies of the federal government, or any other entity authorized by the laws of the State of Utah to participate in State Cooperative Contracts.

Alternative Methods for Procurement:

There are LEAs that have success with effective translation and interpretation language services and have developed training for teachers and staff. These contracts are based on the research done by LEAs based on their specific needs. Virtual Title III meetings of the USBE Alternative Language Services Directors have been one venue for sharing these promising practices throughout the state. This includes a cost/benefit analysis used by some districts.

One example is Ogden School District's purchasing process for contracting Translation and Interpretation Services. They track use, effectiveness and do a cost/benefit analysis. Other districts are contracting with other providers so that state funding can be used to better meet the needs of students learning English and their families. Local Education Agencies have developed methods to better evaluate the contracts that provide Translation and Interpretation Services and software vendors. These evaluation methods are being integrated into the auditing process and shared at quarterly meetings with Alternative Language Services Directors. With these evaluation tools in place, the Utah State Board continues to improve language services to Utah's students and their families.

APPENDIX A:

Progress by the Utah State Board of Education

The Utah State Board of Education's mission is to open doors of opportunity for all Utah children. Implementation of HB302 represents this opportunity: Education Language Services to support family engagement in the educational programs of students learning English. The Utah State Board of Education in 2022 supported the legislation of Representative Dan N. Johnson and Senator Daniel W. Thatcher. HB 302 was passed unanimously by Utah's state legislature.

Interpretation Certificate Implementation Update

HB302 Implementation Timeline consists of three phases that span 2024-2027 year. Each of the four phases outlines actions to be done by three levels of educators in the state: classroom teachers, district, and charter leaders, and USBE education specialists.

Phase 1: Level One Interpreter Training

- Applications for the Level One Interpreter training course opened with 117 applicants being approved to participate in the 10-week Level One Interpreter USBE Canvas course.
- Applicants represent every region of the state and all levels of student support: literacy leaders, counselors, front office, district and charter school leaders and teachers.
- Team led by Adam Herd and Leah Voorhies developed the RFP for contracted services for a 40 hour on-demand advanced training.
- RFP Team evaluated proposals and selected a vendor to provide advanced training.
- All resources and progress are consistently shared at Leadership meetings with Alternative Language Services Directors for every LEA.

Phase 2: Level Two Interpreter Training -Building Capacity

- July 16: Pilot Program in Provo School District. Pilot Program was co-designed with Title III Director for Level One course to be offered by Provo Interpreter (USBE Certified, Early completer); Application sent to all Provo Schools for Provo Certification using USBE Canvas Interpreter Certification course.
- Applicants for Level One will complete the course by September 30, 2024.
- The graduates of Level One will then apply for the Advanced Certificate to become trainers and facilitators of the Level One certification course.

ADA Compliant July 2024

Title: Standards and Assessment Recognition - Title III, Part A

- Three districts have identified facilitators for the advanced course from Level One participants. These districts will use the USBE course to certify their own LEA interpreters.
- Expand recruitment of participants to include a wider range of languages available for interpretation services.

Phase 3: Transition to Full Implementation, 2027

- Continue all the above
- Successful completion of Advanced Certification by at least two interpreters from every LEA throughout Utah to assume the Level One training.
